

I write to express my strong opposition to the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) petition requesting the FCC to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption to Indiana's telephone privacy laws. Indiana's law has overwhelming support from Indiana's citizens. It would be inappropriate for the FCC to interfere with a validly enacted state law.